DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendment, filed on August 22, 2008 has been considered and entered in full.
2. Applicant's arguments with respect to respective amended claims have been considered and are persuasive; therefore all the prior art rejections on the respective claims have been withdrawn. However, the claims 1-2 and 4-22 are subject to the rejections under 35 USC 101, as made below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claims 1-2 and 4-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as not falling within one of the four statutory categories of invention. Supreme Court precedent (Diamond v. Diebr, 450 U.S. 175, 184 (1981); Parker v. Flook, 437 U.S. 584, 588 n.9 (1978); Gottschalk v. Benson, 409 U.S. 63, 70 (1972); Cochrane v. Deener, 94 U.S. 780, 787-88 (1876)) and recent Federal Circuit decisions (In re Bilski, 88 USPQ2d 1385 (Fed. Cir. 2008)) indicate that a statutory "process" under 35 U.S.C. 101 must (1) be tied to another statutory category (such as a particular apparatus), or (2) transform underlying subject matter (such as an article or material) to a different state or thing. While the instant claim(s) recite a series of steps or acts to be performed, the claim(s) neither transform underlying subject matter nor positively tie to another statutory category that accomplishes the claimed method steps, and therefore do not qualify as a statutory process. For example, claim 1 simply recites method steps, they neither transform underlying subject matter nor positively tie to another statutory category. Examiner suggests amending the claims by inserting a statutory category in the body of the claims so that the method steps are tied to a statutory category. All other claims depending on claim 1 are rejected under 35 USC 101 at least by dependency on claim 1.

5. Claims 24-25 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons of allowance:

The reasons of allowance for claims 24-25 should be evident from the applicant's arguments as filed in the amendment filed on 8/22/2008.

Claims 1-2 and 4-22 would be allowable for the same reasons as applied to the claims 24-25, after all the 35 USC 101 rejection issues have been resolved.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Manav Seth whose telephone number is (571) 272-7456. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday to Friday from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm.
